2024 Mid-Year Labor Law Update

Virtual Training

Since January 2024, there have already been a myriad of employment law updates ranging from wage and hour cases, to new rights for pregnant workers, to new Cal/OSHA plan requirements. As seasoned employers know, it is critical to stay current with California's fast-paced changes to mitigate risk and avoid new areas for liability.

Topics covered:

- New wage-and-hour cases regarding compensable time, wage statements, and more
- Fast food, health care, and local minimum wage updates
- Workplace Violence and Indoor Heat Illness plans
- Updates on non-compete agreements
- New rights for pregnant workers
- California's proposed "right to disconnect" bill
